Useful Information

You do not need a return authorization to make a return or exchange.

If we refund your credit card, the funds will be credited to the card you used to make the original purchase. It may take several days after the refund for the credit to appear on your card statement.

Once we receive your exchange or return in the mail, we will usually process it within 2 business days. Please note that it may take several business days for us to receive your item in the mail.
